

GK-3 Match the Letter

Students match letters they hold with letters on a pocket chart.

MATERIALS: Pocket chart, index cards, marker

- 1 Write the same letters on two different sets of index cards.
- 2 Give each student one letter card from a set. Put the remaining set face down in a stack.
- 3 Turn over a letter and place it in the pocket chart.
- 4 The student with the matching letter places it in the pocket below and says the name of the letter.
- 5 Turn over another card and place it in the pocket chart.
- 6 Students continue to match letters and say their names until all cards are used.
- 7 Redistribute the letter cards and repeat the process.

EXTENSION: Give each student multiple letter cards to match, or have students match uppercase and lowercase letters.

PREPARATION OF MATERIALS: Print two copies of the Large Alphabet Cards. Select the letter cards you wish to use in your lesson. To print only upper case letters, print pages 2-6. To print only lower case letters, print pages 7-11. Cut the cards apart. Follow the directions for play.

NOTE: You may wish to mount and laminate the Large Alphabet Cards to use with other activities.
